

Ref.no.: IACA-2019-ER-0032-02

Your Excellencies,

On behalf of the host-country, the Republic of Kazakhstan, and the International Anti-Corruption Academy (IACA), it is our great pleasure to invite all constituency Members, Signatories, and Observers to the upcoming eighth session of the Assembly of Parties, which will take place in Nur-Sultan, the Republic of Kazakhstan, from 2 to 4 October 2019.

Established as an intergovernmental organization on 8 March 2011, IACA comprises a constituency of 78 Parties to date. Since the last session of the Assembly, three more countries and one international organization have joined IACA.

Pursuant to Article V of the Agreement for the Establishment of IACA as an International Organization, the Assembly serves as the forum for Parties to consult on the overall policy of the Organization and on other matters of interest under the Agreement. In view of the significance of this event and the need to reach key decisions regarding the future work of the Organization, we therefore encourage all the Parties, Signatories, and Observers to be represented at the highest possible political level, and to include in their delegations policymakers and experts alike.

All relevant documents will be available, at your convenience, in the Assembly section of our website, www.iaca.int.

In looking forward to your support and participation in the upcoming session of IACA's Assembly of Parties in Nur-Sultan, please accept, Excellencies, the assurances of our highest consideration,

Nur-Sultan, Vienna/Laxenburg, at the 19th of July 2019

On behalf of the Government of the Republic of Kazakhstan

Mr. Alik Shpekbayev

Chairman of the Anti-Corruption Agency of the Republic of Kazakhstan

On behalf of the International
Anti-Corruption Academy (IACA)

Ms. Christiane Pohn-Hufnagl

Officer-in-Charge of IACA
