

INFORMATION FOR THE APPLICATION, ADMISSION, AND PARTICIPATION IN THE ONLINE INTERNATIONAL ANTI-CORRUPTION SUMMER SCHOOL ASIA PACIFIC 2022

ABOUT THE TRAINING

The Online International Anti-Corruption Summer School Eastern Europe 2022 is an online training of the International Anti-Corruption Academy (IACA) and the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC), which will run from 19 to 25 September 2022.

The training is administered and delivered in the English language only (translation or interpretation will not be provided). Its structure and content are described at:

Summer School Asia-Pacific \(iaca.int\)

Target group are students and young people aged 18 to 29 (born between 26 September 1992 and 18 September 2004) from Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Bhutan, Cambodia, Fiji, India, Indonesia, Iran, Iraq, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Lebanon, Lao People's Democratic Republic, Lebanon, Malaysia, Maldives, Marshal Islands, Micronesia, Nepal, Pakistan, Papua New Guinea, Philippines, Samoa, Solomon Islands, Sri Lanka, Tajikistan, Thailand, Tonga, Turkmenistan, Uzbekistan, Vanuatu, Vietnam, and Yemen.

Participation in the training is free of charge and may attract more applications than available seats on the training. Please be mindful that this opportunity shall be seriously considered before committing yourself to it. For this reason, in case of non-participation or incomplete participation, IACA reserves the right to reject any future application for scholarships offered by IACA to its trainings.

APPLICATION

Applications have to be submitted by 5 September 2022, and exclusively online at:

IACA Summer School Asia-Pacific

Required documents (to be attached to the application form):

- a. Curriculum Vitae
- b. Passport Copy
- c. Motivation letter
- d. Proof of the appropriate command of English

If English is not the applicant's mother tongue, the appropriate command of English may be proven by: (a) a certificate of completion of at least one year of fulltime studies where the language of instruction was English; (b) an academic degree where the language of instruction was English; (c) documentation of sufficient professional experience in an English-speaking environment; or (d) English language course certificate. Additionally, interviews may be requested by IACA.

To submit the application, applicants shall sign up to the General Terms and Conditions for Professional Training and the Code of Conduct for IACA's Programmes and Activities.

Applicants will be notified of the receipt of their applications by email. If you experience problems with the online application, please do not hesitate to contact IACA for further guidance through the following email address:

summerschool@iaca.int

ADMISSION

Admissions will be processed by IACA and UNODC based on criteria such as the target group, the applicants' suitability for the training, the English language proficiency, and gender balance.

IACA may request additional information/documentation from applicants and invite applicants for a short interview over telephone or online.

All applicants will be notified about their admission results.

Selected applicants will receive by email an offer to participate in the training and are expected to return with their acceptance by the defined means of communication and deadline.

CANCELLATIONS

As this training is free of charge and may attract more applications than available seats, commitment and fairness are absolutely required.

Therefore, admitted participants who have accepted their offer of participation may cancel their participation until 12 September 2022 by the means of communication defined in the offer email.

Any later cancellation or cases of non-participation or incomplete participation may lead to IACA rejecting any future application for scholarships in IACA's trainings.

ADMINISTRATIVE MATTERS

The training starts on 19 September 2022 in accordance with the timetable issued. Participants are requested to follow the instructions regarding online participation as communicated by IACA.

Participants who have successfully completed the training will receive a certificate of completion.

Participants shall communicate to IACA through the designated addresses, including email, all changes of circumstances and data that may be relevant for their participation in the training. Any costs or adverse consequences caused by changed or unknown circumstances or data of participants, not communicated to IACA are not attributable to and shall not be borne by IACA.

Annex I – General Terms and Conditions for Professional Training

Annex II – Code of Conduct for IACA's Programmes and Activities