TRAINING IMPRESSIONS

"The Summer Academy was the beginning of my journey in the fight against corruption. I owe it all to it. I participated in the programme five months after the Tunisian revolution and three months after I founded IWATCH, a youth-led anti-corruption organization."

Achref Aouadi, Tunisia

"When I switched from the media and civil sector to business, I felt that I had a lot to learn about how a company operates. I was hoping that I would learn a lot from others' experiences and the Summer Academy was very useful in this respect."

Eva Vajda, Hungary

"The Summer Academy is a great programme and it's good fun. It's important to have fun when doing things. It opens your mind and your horizons. It promotes a community spirit and you learn that you cannot fight corruption alone."

Juliano Franco, Portugal

PRACTICE MEETS SCIENCE

SUMMER ACADEMY

The IACA Summer Academy is an intensive, interdisciplinary programme for working professionals looking to consolidate their experiences and enlarge their competences to better counter corruption.

START & DURATION

The sixth annual Summer Academy will take place from 1 to 8 July 2016 at the IACA campus in Laxenburg, Austria.

PROGRAMME BENEFITS

Interdisciplinary in nature, the programme addresses trends and practices on the global anti-corruption and compliance agenda and promotes a culture of the reflective practitioner. It equips participants with:

- a deeper understanding of the intricacies of corruption
- tools to evaluate anti-corruption policies and initiatives
- enhanced skill sets to assess best practices and cross-sectoral challenges
- know-how to help bridge the gap between anti-corruption theory and practice
- frameworks for devising sustainable anti-corruption strategies
- exposure to the latest research and case studies from world-leading experts
- the opportunity to exchange experiences and develop a strong network

PROGRAMME STRUCTURE

The Summer Academy consists of approximately 55 lecture hours, roundtable discussions, group work, teambuilding activities, and social events. This interactive format allows for maximum learning opportunities and networking within a compact amount of time.
