

Master of Arts in Anti-Corruption Studies (MACS) 2018

Module I. Concepts and Issues in Corruption

(10 class days)

5 – 16 November 2018

Introduction to the Study of Corruption

Corruption, Organised Crime and Money Laundering

Organizational Misbehaviour and its Antecedents: An Introduction

Research Methods I

Practitioner's Perspective

Module II. Political Science and Sociology of Corruption

(10 class days)

4 – 15 February 2019

Corruption, Power, and Development

Analyzing and Comparing Corruption Problems

Module III. Corruption, Law, and International Initiatives

(10 class days)

29 April – 10 May 2019

Corruption and the Rule of Law

Police Corruption and Collusion: Some Comparative Findings

Foreign Anti-Bribery Law

Domestic Anti-Corruption Laws

Corruption and Human Rights

International Anti-Corruption Conventions and Initiatives

Research Methods II

Practitioner's Perspective: US DOJ FCPA Enforcement

Module IV. Economics of Corruption

(10 class days)

22 July – 2 August 2019

Macroeconomic Theories and Models of Corruption

Economic Consequences and Effects of Corruption

Behavioral and Institutional Economic Approaches to Anti-Corruption

Economic Approach to Human Behavior

Social Cost of Corruption

Public Choice Theory of Corruption

Game Theory, the Law & Corruption

Module V. Corruption, Compliance, and the Private Sector
(10 class days)

14 – 25 October 2019

Corruption in the Private Sector

Corporate Governance and Corporate Social Responsibility

Corruption, Criminal Liability and Settlements

Building Effective Compliance Programs

Investigating Corruption

Module VI. Corruption, Enforcement, and the Private Sector
(10 class days)

13 – 24 January 2020

Asset recovery: International Cooperation in Recovery of Proceeds of Corruption

Anti-Corruption in Local Governance

Investigating Corruption

Corruption Based Anti-Money Laundering

Module VII. Corruption Prevention and the Future of Anti-Corruption
(10 class days)

20 April – 1 May 2020

Whistleblowers and their Protection

National Anti-Corruption Strategies

Fraud & Corruption Prevention and Control in the Aid Sector

Research Methods III

Prevention and Control of Corruption: Agenda for the Future