
IACA

The International Anti-Corruption Academy (IACA) is an international organization and post-secondary educational institution based in Laxenburg, Austria. Through education, training, research, and cooperation, IACA empowers professionals and provides technical assistance for stakeholders seeking to strengthen their anti-corruption and compliance regimes. More than 70 States Parties and international organizations form part of its global constituency.

IMPACT STORIES

"When I switched from the media and civil sector to business, I felt that I had a lot to learn about how a company operates. I was hoping that I would learn a lot from others' experiences and the Summer Academy was very useful in this respect."

Eva Vajda (Hungary)
CE Forensic Operations Manager, Deloitte

.....
"The 2016 IACA Summer Academy came at the right time for me. The programme was an opportunity to absorb invaluable first-hand knowledge in a very short period of time."

Abu Bhakarr Jalloh (Sierra Leone)
Business and Economic Editor,
African Press Agency (APA News)

.....
"My Summer Academy class had participants from over 40 countries, and our experience included working for large and small corporations, non-profits, and government agencies. The diversity of the participants, as well as the thought-provoking lectures, led to a depth of discussion that is not often found in training courses."

Carey Fenton (United States of America)
Program Director, Global Anti-Corruption Compliance,
Walmart

"The Summer Academy is a great programme and it's good fun. It's important to have fun when doing things. It opens your mind and your horizons. It promotes a community spirit and you learn that you cannot fight corruption alone."

Juliano Franco (Portugal)
Legal Officer at the European Ombudsman

PRACTICE MEETS SCIENCE

SUMMER ACADEMY

The IACA Summer Academy is an intensive annual programme for working professionals looking to consolidate their experiences and enlarge their competences to better counter corruption.

Interdisciplinary in nature, the programme addresses trends and practices on the global anti-corruption and compliance agenda and promotes a culture of the reflective practitioner.

DURATION: 29 JUNE - 6 JULY 2018

PROGRAMME BENEFITS

The Summer Academy equips participants with:

- a deeper understanding of the intricacies of corruption
- enhanced skill sets to assess best practices and cross-sectoral challenges
- tools to help bridge the gap between anti-corruption theory and practice
- frameworks for devising sustainable anti-corruption strategies
- exposure to the latest research and case studies from world-leading experts
- the opportunity to exchange experiences and develop a strong network.

Participants benefit from high-level peer discussion and subsequently join the Academy's alumni network of anti-corruption and compliance professionals from about 150 countries.

PROGRAMME STRUCTURE

The Summer Academy consists of lecturers, roundtable discussions, group work, teambuilding activities, and social events. The compact interactive format allows for maximum learning opportunities and networking.
