NEWS

IACA bulletin

"Going regional with one of IACA's success stories, the Summer Academy, provides for a most fruitful forum where practice meets science."

Martin Kreutner,
Dean & Executive Secretary of IACA

"IACA is becoming the hub where best ideas and practices against corruption can be spread around the world."

Luis Moreno Ocampo, former Chief Prosecutor of the International Criminal Court and regular lecturer at IACA

"From my participation at the IACA Summer Academy, I learned that there is no model to deal with corruption which may be applicable to all countries. First, there is a need to understand the challenges that each country faces and then to focus on a particular model."

Wendy Oliviero, Minister Counsellor at the Permanent Mission of the Dominican Republic to the International Organizations in Vienna and IACA Summer Academy 2012 alumna

"We do a lot of things about corruption but we do not understand a lot about it yet. It is great to have an institution like IACA that can think about corruption and find ways to improve institutional settings and approaches."

Ronald MacLean-Abaroa, former Mayor of La Paz, Bolivia and regular lecturer at IACA

"The IACA Summer Academy was highly valuable in terms of the quality of lecturers as well as the intercultural exchange that it imprinted. That certainly expanded our way of thinking about compliance and the different strategies to fight corruption in other cultures."

Pablo J. Miranda, Compliance Officer at Siemens S.A. (South America w/o Brazil) and IACA Summer Academy 2015 alumnus
