

Empowering Professionals

Master in Anti-Corruption Studies

ONLINE

CAMPUS-BASED RESEARCH AND WRITING SUPPORT (OPTIONAL)

APPLICATION DEADLINE: 20 SEPTEMBER 2020

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION DEADLINE: 31 AUGUST 2020

THE PROGRAMME

- Interdisciplinary two-year programme in anti-corruption and compliance with 120 ECTS credits, enabling enrolment into PhD programmes
- Part-time, flexibly designed for working professionals
- Seven modules, each module consisting of several synchronous and asynchronous interactive learning materials
- Small classes, interactive teaching methods, group works, case studies, games, and stakeholder discussions,
- Online master programme from the comfort of your rooms

ADMISSION

Have at least three years of relevant work experience or a proven history of academic research in areas related to anti-corruption and/or compliance, broadly understood.

Candidates who do not have working experience yet and are applying directly from the bachelor's degree, should have their undergraduate degree qualification such as economics, law, political science, sociology, or any other field related to MACS studies

IACA ACADEMIC PROGRAMMES

Contact us

☎ +43 2236 710 718 100
@ macs2020@iaca.int

For more information please visit our website

🌐 WWW.IACA.INT

LECTURER EXPERIENCE

Lloydette Bai-Marrow
Anti-Corruption & Economic Crime Lawyer

“ The MACS course is a rigorous and intensive programme of study. I was particularly impressed by the breadth of material covered and the highly effective use of practical exercises to embed learning. The students are exposed to teaching of the highest calibre and from a broad spectrum of experts. The MACS class of 2018 were an incredibly diverse group of dedicated and skilled professionals from all over the world. They worked incredibly hard during each Module and would return home exhausted but it was clear to see that this programme was already making a difference to their professional lives. They were all excited and expectant about future opportunities once they had conclude the course. It was a delight and an honour to be part of the teaching faculty on this flagship and premier programme of study.

Max Kaiser Aranda
Anti-Corruption Director
Mexican Institute for Competitiveness (IMCO)

“ Corruption is a complex disease that erodes democratic governance. It requires first a comprehensive understanding, and then a holistic response. The MACS creates professionals with the capacity to understand the phenomenon and approach it in a creative and multidimensional manner.

Alexandra Malina Manea
Legal Counsel, World Bank,
Office of Suspension and Debarment

“ Through its programmes in general and the MACS in particular, IACA is becoming a key player in the global efforts against corruption. The MACS curriculum reflects well the understanding that corruption needs a multidisciplinary and complex approach. The programme also strongly encourages knowledge exchange not only between the trainer and the students but also between the students themselves. This is particularly valuable because students come from different countries and sectors and I have directly observed how exchanges between them catalyze creative analysis of entrenched problems and they all benefit from exposure to different local settings.

STUDENT EXPERIENCE

Prem K. Gautam
Deputy Inspector General, Central
Bureau of Investigation, India
MACS 2016 - 2018 graduate

“ The MACS programme at IACA provided me with a unique opportunity to analyse corruption from different perspectives, where anti-corruption laws and best practices from various parts of globe are learnt, discussed and debated in an amazing learning environment in the company of highly qualified and motivated anti-corruption professionals under the guidance of renowned and best academicians/subject matter experts. An inspiring, enriching and truly international anti-corruption course!

Mirte Van Den Berge
Strategic Analyst / Deputy
Head Intelligence Centre,
Security and Integrity
Management, ABN AMRO
Bank, Netherlands
MACS 2016 - 2018 graduate

“ The MACS programme has a solid structure, analysing corruption from all relevant angles. The programme is truly multidisciplinary and offers state of the art insights on fighting corruption through discussions with renowned academics and practitioners. The course has been highly relevant for my career. In my job I benefit a lot from the knowledge and international network I developed during the MACS programme.

Mohammed Alabsi
Head of Financial and Cyber Crime Unit
Gulf Cooperation Police Council
Kingdom of Bahrain
MACS 2014 - 2016 graduate

“ Completing graduate studies in the same area as my work will enhance my use of development tools to fight corruption. Since starting my studies at IACA, I have come to know many people of different nationalities and specializations. This has contributed to the exchange of information, views, and experiences, enhanced my knowledge, and opened up other possible cooperation aspects.

FOLOW US

