

WHISTLEBLOWER PROTECTION IN ACTION: HOW TO SHIELD WORKPLACE WITNESSES FROM RETALIATION

OVERVIEW

Now that more than 45 countries have whistleblower protection laws in place – with many more in the works – expertise is being developed to protect employees from retaliation. What may seem like a quick and easy task is proving to be more complicated and difficult than expected.

In this online discussion, top international experts will explain the most effective and efficient ways to shield employees, win their reinstatement if they are dismissed or demoted, and obtain compensation if they suffer damages. You will learn many time-tested tactics and techniques to best protect employees from reprisals, while ensuring that their reports of crime and corruption are properly investigated and remedied.

If you deal with whistleblowers, work on whistleblower cases, or design whistleblower protection systems, this discussion will give you valuable insights that will help you achieve success and justice.
